Famous Rubens Canvas Lost 100 Years, Found

Berlin.—A famous painting by Rubens, "David's Fight With the Bear," which has been lost for more than a hundred years, has been found in a shop of a Berlin art dealer. It is one of eight pictures taken by Rubens on his mission to the Spanish court in 1614, and was last seen in 1857.

Its authenticity has been testified to by Dr. Wilhelm Bode, one of Europe's greatest art authorities, and Dr. Ludwig Burchard.

The history of the painting since its disappearance has not been divulged, though it is believed it was the property of a German prince who has been compelled to sell the picture because of straitened circumstances. The prince's name is kept secret, though in certain circles there is speculation the painting was in the possession of the former crown prince.

West End Shoe Repair Shop

At 1804 Park Avenue in Lynchburg, specializes in very high grade repairing of shoes for men, women and children. Out of town work may be sent in by mail. He will give you up-to-date service and return them promptly by parcel post. Many people in this section highly praise the service.

Like the old violin maker he prefers to do fewer jobs and make each one a masterpiece. "Quality and service at reasonable prices" is his motto.

When Mr. Trent started in business he was thoroughly convinced that the public cares much for quality as price. With that belief behind him "Quality First" was the motto drummed into the ears of every man in his employ. He was right. The public does want quality—you want quality in what you buy. And because he has constantly kept this fact in mind, he is recognized to day as one of the best shoe repair men in this section.

A personal invitation is extended to all those interested in the better class of work. No matter what has been your past experience he offers you a service that is different. When you visit his shop you will see for yourself just what he means by Quality and Service. You should see the pains with which each is handled. It is the attention which he gives to the little details, as well as the big points, that not only gives his work the greatest utility possible but adds also a touch of distinction which no other man has equaled.

The fact that he has existed and thrived in face of the bitter competition he has had to meet is proof sufficient that his work has always been of the very highest quality. His many satisfied customers is all the advertisement he needs.

Mr. Trent is well thought of in the city and has shown a progressive spirit and has done his share in making this city a more prosperous and better community in which to live. We unhesitatingly recommend him to all our readers as a man whose word you can depend.

J. C. Camden

Shoes are repaired at reasonable prices and the trouble them to J. C. Camden at 1202 Main in Lynchburg. They guarantee the best work. A trial will convince you. Once a customer, always a customer. When the heel of your shoe becomes worn on one side, rough or stony walks give your feet pain, or there is a hole in the sole of your shoe see this reliable shoe repair shop.

Everyone strives to be above the average, but let us quote here that the average person waits till they need are on the ground before they think of having them repaired. A good shoe built of good leather both in the upper and in soles and has a heavy inner sole. But with all these good qualities they will not stand for excessive abuse. By this we mean wearing the shoes until there is not sufficient upper left to securely fasten the new soles.

When your shoes are run over on one side they should be built high on that side to overcome the trouble.

Mr. Camden sees to it that only the best upgrade of leather goes into your shoes. He is a veteran in the shoe repair business and you can depend upon his talented service. When your shoes are repaired at his establishment they will give you as much wear as when first bought and worn.

"Once a customer—always a customer" is not only featured here but can be proven true. Just ask your neighbor—he or she no doubt has at some time had shoes repaired here and will tell you to go there also. Their business review speaks for itself and they always stand ready to serve the public and Wheelers Pharmacy Inc.

Located in Lynchburg at 1757 Park Ave., is a well known prescription druggists and headquarters for prescription work, drugs, chemicals, toilet and rubber goods and many other specialties. The soda, cigar and candy departments are very popular and a meeting place for people in town.

During the time they have been in business this well established drug store has built up for itself a reputation for being among the reliable yet progressive business houses of the city. When one visits a drug store he likes to know that he will find a pharmacist in charge who is both efficient and conscientious. At this establishment they will find one of the most efficient pharmacist and that they will receive only pure and wholesome drugs properly compounded.

In the proprietary line they carry all of the leading and well known brands and enjoy a large patronage in this department. In keeping with the progressive, yet reliable policy, they carry a complete line of soap, combs, perfumery and toilet articles and everything one would expect to find in an up-to-date drug store.

The great success of this store is due to the business ability of the managers who have displayed more than ordinary ability in the conduct of the establishment. They are of the business men who have assisted in making the city of the state sit up and take notice of their home community. We are pleased in this review to direct your special attention to this up-to-date store upon the satisfactory service to all of the local and visiting people for they have come to be recognized as the strictly up-to-date drug store in this section of the state and a feature of the business life of the community.

Radio Shop

This modern store in Lynchburg at 213 Ninth Sreet is radio headquarters for this community.

The Radio—the greatest of all latter day inventions and a modern miracle that has forever destroyed distance. Distance today as regardless human communication is comparable to covering the world with your hat. As a disseminator of news, the pony express was the pioneer, next came the telegraph, then the telephone, the wireless telegraph, and now, the mad rush for the Radio. Today's news, market reports, amusements by the world's best entertainers, all are instantly brought from the four corners of the earth to entertain the family, comfortably seated about the old fireside.

Radio Shop was among the first to realize the field opened up by the radio and at once prepared themselves to specialize in its sale and installation. By careful management and satisfactory service the business has grown to large proportions and foreseeing the future possibilities have secured assistants who are experts in the science of radio.

Their prices are always attractive and promptness of the satisfying kind, getting the work done when promised.

Better call on them when ready to talk radio. They will figure with you and suggest what is best suited to your needs. Besides installing your set, they will erect your outside wiring and guarantee satisfaction.

The cost of installing a radio on the farm will usually be repaid within a season or two by the tips obtained from market and crop reports.

From a moral standpoint, no greater inducement was ever offered to the young folk to spend their evenings at home and take advantage of the radio to enjoy the world's best songsters, musicians, lecturers and other high class entertainments.

Figuring the cost of installing a radio set, its many benefits and pleasures taken into account, the price will be found insignificant and within reach of every purse. Do not longer deny yourself or your family these pleasures.

They carry the best line of Radio sets manufactured. A special feature in these farmers is the system of broadcasting lectures by the various Farm Bureaus.

Radio Shop will be prepared to take care of school radio installations, for which a series of concerts and educational lectures will be broadcast especially for schools.

C. W. Hancock & Son Inc.

OLD BORDER POST NOW TOURIST CAMP

Fort Wilkins Never Fired Hostile Shot.

Fort Wilkins, Mich.—The unprotected borders of the United States and Canada, an oft-cited example that two peoples can live in peace, revive the story of Fort Wilkins, the last army post on the northern boundary line.

Not since its garrison marched away shortly after the Civil war have its confines echoed to martial tread. It now is a state park, and tourists, camp beneath its trees, where, sentries alert for the war cry of Indian braves once walked their posts.

Just a cannon shot away, across the water of Lake Superior, is the imaginary line separating Canada from the United States.

Never once in the life of the old fort was a gun fired from its confines in hostility. Fort Wilkins was established in 1844, temporarily abandoned in 1846, reoccupied in 1860 and finally deserted in 1870.

The post was built at the end of Michigan's thumb, the Keweenaw peninsula, as a protection to early copper miners and settlers against Indian aggression. There, too, lurked in the minds of officials at the United States some day might need to defend its northern frontier.

The first garrisoned troops, who built, the post, hewed the logs from the surrounding forests. The buildings were clapboarded and when the state took over the post the fort was well preserved.

Protecting the inclosure on the north and east was a stockade of posts, fortened with hand-made wooden pegs. Lake Fanny Hooe provided protection on the south side, and there was a rapidly flowing stream on the west.

The post, although somewhat modernized by the summer's flow of tourists, remains a fine out of the past in the industrialized present of Michigan's copper country.

Russia Draws Many Workers From U. S.

Riga, Latvia.—Soviet officials in Riga estimate that 30,000 former residents of the United States are living in Soviet Russia.

Every month more enter and others come out, while many of those who remain bombard the American consulate, across the frontier in Riga, with letters requesting visas that would permit them to return to America.

Most of the discontented people gone into Russia since the revolution, looking for a worker's earthly paradise, are living in small communes and villages.

They are brought to Riga by steamship companies in large parties and sent into Russia from here. Each immigrant is obliged on entering a red commune to have a minimum capital of $500 and to surrender his American passport before entering the new world that Lenin created.

Chew of Tobacco Solves Mystery of Burglaries

York, Neb.—A chew from a plug of tobacco was the undoing here of Leon Hudson and led officers to the discovery of the perpetrator of more than forty burglaries in and near York county during January and February. Hudson had been arrested as a suspect.

The burglar apparently had worked with rubber gloves, as no finger prints were found, and the only clews left were footprints and a plug of tobacco from which a bite had been taken, leaving a perfect imprint of teeth.

The suspect at once played cards with a number of prisoners and indicted all to have a chew. Hudson was the only one to accept and his teeth prints were found to be like those in the state's exhibit. Later he made a confession to all burglaries of which he had been suspected.

Some Are That Dumb

Bordeaux, France.—A mule hailed Jules Durand, taxi driver, and engaged him to go to Bergerac, 50 miles distant. Thinking the "fare" was aboard, Durand drove to Bergerac, where he found that the man had never got into his cab. He's trying to collect, but it's difficult.

3,000-Horse Power Engine Built

Vienna.—A 3,000 horse-power railway locomotive, said to be the largest and most powerful in Europe, has been built here for use on steep Alpine grades. Auxiliary engines as pushers on mountain routes are entirely dispensed with by the new locomotive.
